Safeguarding Children

Monday 24th May 2010 – Central London

Capita's 10th National Safeguarding Children Conference is timed to coincide with the crucial revision of the Working Together guidance and Ofsted's 6 monthly evaluation of Serious Case Reviews.

With the revisions expected to have far reaching implications for all safeguarding stakeholders, this event will bring together local and central government, social care, education, health, police and the third sector to collectively review inter-agency approaches to child protection.

Take part in multi-agency discussion forums on the most pressing child protection concerns including:

- Sexual abuse
- Forced marriage and honour based violence
- E-safety
- Female genital mutilation
- Child Trafficking
- Safeguarding disabled children

Understand your role from prevention and identification through to prosecution and victim support.

A special focus will also be on the unique safeguarding issues facing girls and young women in response to the Reducing Violence Against Women and Girls Strategy.

It is imperative that different public services come together to share fresh approaches and best practice to help keep all children safe regardless of their known vulnerability.
